

QUANTUM OF SURPRISE!

We at Footprint like to keep you updated on the many delightful experiences we uncover every now and then. This time we present you a booklet which is a collection of interesting journeys that can be weaved into your holiday. Each journey has been handpicked by us, not based on whether they feature in any top ten list but based on our personal experiences and on the fact that it will probably be a highlight of your trip.

We have traversed the globe and brain stormed extensively to cull out journeys that fit easily into the normal course of your work and personal life.

Modelled a La Bond, this booklet unveils a journey a page, a thrill a minute. Read on and tell us which journey you would like to take.
